

The Bidding Process for Home Sale Express Auction

How the Online Bidding Process Works

Getting involved in the bidding process is simple. You need have to be pre-approved for a loan or show proof of funds to close. To get involved, simply register at www.HomeSaleExpress.com by entering your name, telephone number and your email. If you have an agent representing you, he/she can register on your behalf. All that is required is submitting a broker registration form.

The Online Bidding Process will begin at 12:00pm on Saturday June 26th and end at 5:00pm on Monday June 28th. All upset bids placed will be in $500.00 increments. The Opening Bid is $49,900.

If the highest/best bidder fails to provide credible ability to purchase the home (Providing a prequalification letter or proof of funds prior to the auction is highly encouraged) the home will immediately be offered to the next highest/best bidder at his or her final bid price.

This is an open bidding process and we will disclose the highest bid at all times.

This sale is subject to an Undisclosed Minimum Reserve set by the Seller.
